Yes, but there is also too cold...even for someone who grew up in a colder climate like

Good idea re: email to introduce concept.

Yes — well said re: unreasonably warm...

Thanks. I am revisiting the summary of the proposal to make it more informal (as an email), which I'll send to them in advance of the actual language. I think it might be better to introduce them to the concept before they dive into the specifics of the language.

And it's always unseasonably warm in Texas. Often it's unreasonably warm.

Looks good.

Ex. 5 AC/AWP/DP

Texas is unseasonably warm.

Thanks for the close look. I reworked the "audit is complete when" provisions to hopefully make it clearer (also moved it so that it's in a more logical place - following the work to be done).

Hope you're enjoying Tejas!
